Open 11am-5pm Sat, 12.30-5pm Sun

1 13 Coleridge Rd, Eastville, BS5 6SR
Emma Philippa Maeve
A multi-disciplinary artist whose approach is inspired by music, scenery and emotions. Each process and step is completely original from artworks to print to accessories.

2 Radical Roasters, 60-62 St Marks Rd, BS5 0LR
BRAC – Nabil Amiri
Artworks include mono-prints and detailed linocuts. Nabil will be running drop-in badge-making and foam printing workshops suitable for all ages, hosted by Radical Roasters, where you can also get great food and coffee.

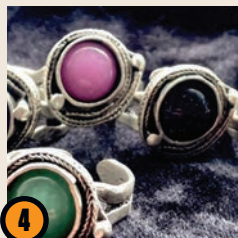

3 The Yard, 53 St Mark's Rd BS5 6HX
Imogen Robins
My new collection of abstract paintings is inspired by my experience of having breast cancer and a damaged shoulder, painting in bright bold acrylics was all I could do for months and helped my recovery.

3 The Yard, 53 St Mark's Rd BS5 6HX
Graffiti Heads
Hair put ups and braiding combined with UV glow graffiti and glitter. The bright hair coloured dos can be worn just for the day or combined with hair up-dos, set in place for the weekend.

4 St Marks Baptist Church, BS5 6HX
Chris Lynas
I make pen plotter art using a 3D printed open-source plotter I designed. I'm interested in representing photographs through line drawings.

4 St Marks Baptist Church, BS5 6HX
Purple moon by Jules
I handmade jewellery and stained glass from my home workshop with my pieces inspired by nature and the sea often combining driftwood with glass.

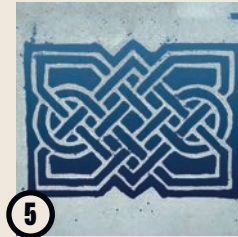

4 St Marks Baptist Church, BS5 6HX
Proper Job Production
Exclusive prints on various mediums, coasters, fridge magnets, cards, mugs and jigsaws.

4 St Marks Baptist Church, BS5 6HX
Fairy Angels
I hand make colourful and kitsch jewellery, resin dishes, coasters and pots and also sell my own prints and cards.

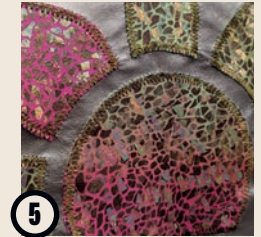

4 St Marks Baptist Church, BS5 6HX
V Lynas & T Harcourt
Creative outpourings of a mother/daughter team who enjoy making art together. V works in pen and paint, T mostly yarn and textiles. Plenty of colour and some surreal turns.
